Demo License

Demo fonts may be used for testing purposes only. This includes presentations, and experiments. Any professional or consumer facing projects require the purchase of a standard license. Use of the fonts is permitted for as long is required to make a decision on whether or not you will purchase a license. If the font will be transmitted or used by a client, the client must purchase an appropriate license.

Use in student work is permitted. Use by a student in paid work is not permitted.

Modifications to the font software or the design embodied therein is not permitted.
